Jacob Beranek (b. 1998) is a composer and pianist from Oconomowoc, WI. He has won many composition awards, including the Dolce Suono Ensemble's national 2017 Steven Stucky Young Composers Competition, Project 21 Prize for Music Composition, the Wisconsin School Music Association Student Composition Project, and 2nd Place in the National Federation of Music Clubs Junior Composers competition. Jacob studied for three weeks at the 2016 Curtis Institute of Music's Young Artist Summer Program and regularly attended the Jr. Composers Institute in Minneapolis from 2012-2015. He currently studies composition privately with Ronald Foster. An honor student, Jacob is a senior at University Lake School in Hartland, WI, and plans to study composition in college. You can learn more about Jacob and his musical endeavors at www.beranekmusic.com.